WELCOME TO THE SHOW!

Thank you for attending Exclusively Housewares and sister show Exclusively Electrical. If this is your first visit, then we hope you enjoy the 'Exclusively' experience!

We are very proud that the Exclusively shows continue to be a fantastic showcase for the industry. The two shows create a unique platform from which you can easily review the styles and trends in the pipeline for housewares, tableware and small domestic and kitchen appliances.

This year we are again using the Atrium of the Gallery Hall, above Exclusively Electrical; this is the location of your Press Office, Brand Showcase and the 'On Trend Display'.

Look out for Recommended Product Design On-Trend icons around the show and through the catalogue. Once again, trend forecasters Scarlet Opus have been hard at work identifying products at the show that represent key consumer and design trends for our industry. They are also running guided 'Trend Tours' during the show, a fantastic chance to explore and understand the trends evolving from season to season. Just visit the 'On Trend' display area if you'd like to join in and we will book you on one.

On the exhibitors main entry you may notice a few new icons for 2019, these are for trails - just follow the stands displaying the icons or look them up on page 156.

On behalf of all our exhibitors, thank you for your support and interest.

FREE TREND TALKS WITH THE FOOD PEOPLE

What to expect

"the food people" will share the most relevant future food and drink future trends which will have an impact on every visitor and exhibitor attending the show over the course of the next 2 years. Charles Banks from the food trends adds "The problem for business today is that food moves fast, very fast and often the consumer is moving faster still. Understanding what the next vegan, the next street food or the next Korean is, is critical for business".

2019 is a special year for BODUM: we will celebrate that it is 75 years since BODUM was founded. During the 50s the very first product was MOCCA, the siphon/vacuum coffee maker; we invented a special filter which we still use today. After MOCCA came PEBO, which was very successful; now both are at the very core of the slow-coffee trend. In 1974 we introduced our French press; since then, people all over the world make their best cup of coffee the 'French-press-way'. During the 90s, we continued developing better products for the kitchen, tabletop and for brewing the best cup of coffee or tea. Some of our best lines have been our double wall glasses which we will also introduce this year in durable polycarbonate for outdoor use especially.

Boska loves food! What you love, you want to cherish with the right food tools. Cheese and chocolate are our all-time favourites. You can enjoy them cut, sliced, grated, curled or melted as fondue. Our story started over 120 years ago with Blacksmith Willem Bos making his first cheese tools for cheese professionals. In 2000 we started with designing cheesewares for home use, like fondue sets, cheese boards, knives and slicers. Along the way we fell in love with chocolate and we introduced Chocowares and the revolutionary Fondue Set Marie, the first double boiler fondue set. We know how to enjoy cheese, just as we know how to enjoy chocolate. One thing is for sure: both taste best with the right tools and the right people.

GreenPan™ is the original global ceramic non-stick brand, and its Featherweights cast aluminium Dutch ovens and grill-pan range had great success at the Housewares Innovation Awards earlier this year. GreenPan™ was also highly commended in the Best Supplier Service category. Featherweights is the first cast aluminium range for GreenPan™; it's extremely lightweight (50% lighter than cast iron), easy to handle, but with superior heat distribution, excellent heat retention and an innovative 'rainfall effect' lid. It features the durable diamond-reinforced Thermolon™ Infinity Professional ceramic non-stick, for intensive daily use, and is metal utensil-safe plus oven- and dishwasher-safe and easy-clean. Also on show: Mayflower and Venice Pro.
